The SDK includes without limitation everything downloaded from the RIM website or that of a RIM affiliate or that is emailed or otherwise provided to You. Certain Software that forms part of the SDK may be subject to additional terms and conditions. You may not copy the Software, SDK or any portion thereof except to the extent that such copying is essential for the normal operation of the Software or in the course of making unmodified copies of the Software or documentation as part of the regular back-up of the computer or system on which the SDK is installed.

(b) Unless You obtain written authorization from RIM executed by a duly authorized signatory of RIM, You acknowledge that the License does not include and You are not licensed to develop, market, rent, distribute, transfer, license, sublicense, or furnish any applications which modify, delete, duplicate or replace all or any material part of the email functionality or features of the BlackBerry Software or the BlackBerry Software itself except where such applications are developed for and distributed solely in connection with RIM Handheld products in accordance with the License. You further agree not to engage in any of the aforementioned activities or to attempt to do so using any part of the SDK.

All rights reserved."

Notwithstanding Section 2, You acknowledge and agree that You will not be permitted to access certain APIs in the SDK unless the code for Your Application has been electronically signed by RIM. You further acknowledge and agree that RIM may require You to submit certain information respecting Your identity and Your Application as a condition of RIM signing the code for Your Application. Furthermore, RIM reserves the right to refuse to sign the code for Your Application, or to revoke any and all code signing already granted for Your Application if, at any time: (a) RIM deems, in its sole and reasonable discretion, that Your Application does not require access to the APIs for which code signing is requested in order to be used in conjunction with the BlackBerry Solution or the BlackBerry Handheld Products or RIM Handheld Products as the case may be, (b) RIM has a reasonable apprehension that Your Application may interfere with, degrade, or otherwise adversely affect the BlackBerry Solution, BlackBerry Handheld Product(s), or RIM Handheld Product(s), and/or any other software, system, network or data, (c) RIM has a reasonable apprehension that the information that You have provided to RIM in order to obtain access to such APIs is untrue, inaccurate, not current or incomplete, (d) RIM is prohibited from signing the code for Your Application due to governmental, contractual or other restrictions of applicable authority, such as a court of competent jurisdiction, or (e) You have breached, or RIM has a reasonable apprehension of Your imminent breach, of this Agreement or any other agreement between You and RIM.

You acknowledge that there are no implied licenses granted under this Agreement, and all rights, save for those license rights expressly granted to You hereunder, shall remain with RIM. You may need licenses, including without limitation patent and copyright licenses from RIM and from third parties, to use, manufacture, reproduce or distribute Your Applications, and You agree that RIM has no obligation to You with respect to providing notice of or acquiring such licenses, including without limitation the Certicom Crypto API.

9. Export Restrictions; U.S. Government Rights.

(b) Further, should you import or export the SDK outside of North America, You are required to check the RIM website at to see if RIM has established a separate SDK license for that jurisdiction. If a separate SDK license has been established for that jurisdiction (a "Foreign SDK License") Your continuing use of the SDK is subject to the terms and conditions of the Foreign SDK License by importing, exporting installing, using or copying the SDK in or into any country or territory for which RIM has established a Foreign SDK License, or by agreeing to its terms in accordance with the process described in such license. In the event of any inconsistency between this Agreement and the License and any of the terms or conditions of the Foreign SDK License, the Foreign SDK License shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

You will be deemed to be in breach of this Agreement if: (a) You fail to comply with or perform a term or condition herein; or (b) You or anyone acting on Your instructions or on Your behalf interferes with RIM's customer service or business operations; or (c) You materially breach any other agreement that You may have with RIM. RIM may also terminate this Agreement if RIM is prevented from providing any portion or all of the SDK by any law, regulation, requirement or ruling issued in any form whatsoever by judicial or other governmental body. Nothing herein shall be construed to require RIM to seek a waiver of any law, rule, regulation, or restriction, or seek judicial review or appeal of any court order. In addition, RIM reserves the right to terminate this Agreement on thirty (30) days notice to You for any reason whatsoever. RIM shall not have any liability to You arising from or related to the termination of this Agreement or the License for any reason. No remedy herein conferred upon RIM is intended to be, nor shall it be construed to be, exclusive of any other remedy provided herein or as allowed by law or in equity, but all such remedies shall be cumulative.
