

Company
Overview	BlackBerry Limited enables the Enterprise of Things by providing the technology that allows endpoints to trust one another, communicate securely, and maintain privacy.	Cylance develops artificial intelligence to deliver prevention-first, predictive security products, and specialized security services that change how organizations approach endpoint security.
Ticker Symbol	NYSE: BB / TSE: BB	N/A
Website	www.blackberry.com	www.cylance.com
Headquarters	Waterloo, Ontario	Irvine, California
CEO	John Chen	Stuart McClure
Employees	3,200+	~900
Revenue	$967M in FY18 (Non-GAAP)	Private company
History	Founded in 1984 by Mike Lazaridis and Douglas Fregin; Initial Public Offering in 1997	Founded in 2012 by Stuart McClure and Ryan Perme
Industry Position	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Leader in the July 2018 Gartner Magic Quadrant for Unified Endpoint Management Tools</li> <li>• Leader in IDC MarketScape: Worldwide Enterprise Mobility Management Software 2018 Vendor Assessment</li> <li>• Trusted software provider to all G7 governments and Fortune 100 commercial banks</li> <li>• ISO-26262 safety-certified software provider, with an install base of over 120 million cars</li> <li>• Owner of 37,500+ patents</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Leader in IDC Marketscape: Worldwide Endpoint Specialized Threat Analysis and Protection 2017 Vendor Assessment</li> <li>• Visionary in Gartner 2017 and 2018 Magic Quadrant for Endpoint Protection Platforms</li> <li>• #18 of Forbes Cloud 100</li> <li>• #10 of Deloitte Technology Fast 500</li> <li>• Over 100 patents and patent applications in cybersecurity and machine learning</li> </ul>
Select Past Acquisitions	QNX (2010)  Secusmart (2014)  AtHoc (2015)  Good Technology (2015)  WatchDox (2015)	Ridgeway Internet Security (2012)  SpearPoint Security Services (2013)