Furthermore, we may make available to or send to Users upgrades or updates, or notices of upgrades or updates, of software, or other BlackBerry products and services, or third party services or Content and related products or services. In some cases, address book information, device location data (including real-time location information), calendar and reminder entries, and photos may be accessed by the Services and Processed by us to provide functionality that uses this information as part of or in conjunction with the Services. For example, to allow You to send an invitation email or SMS to contact(s) in Your address book, or to discover contacts in Your address book who also use the Services, Your device address book may be accessed by the Services. As mentioned below, applicable device or application software settings options may allow You to adjust what personal information is shared with the Services.
- d. "Cloud-based" Services. You acknowledge that the Services make available "cloud based" messaging and other services, which may include remote access, storage, or back-up functionality provided by the BBM Providers, and You agree that by using the Services, information You enter, provide to, or integrate with such services may be Processed by the BBM Providers to facilitate the Services, and You represent and warrant that You have all necessary consents to provide such data to us.

In order to provide such functionality, You agree that Your availability to interact or connect with others may be indicated to others, and Your profile, display names, display pictures, status messages, membership status, and other identifiers or information may be viewed and, in some cases, commented on by such individuals. For example, if You elect to connect a BBM-enabled service to Your BBM account, You agree that, where such functionality exists: (i) Your BBM contacts may see whether You are using such service; (ii) Your contacts may see Your profile and the software and Content (such as games, music or other media files, depending on the service or software) that You have downloaded, are consuming, or that is available for sharing as part of Your use of the service, as well as comments You or others make about them; (iii) when You submit comments about Your contacts or the software or Content they have downloaded or are consuming as part of their use of the service, information about You (such as Your comments, user profile name, and display picture) may be displayed to other contacts of that individual, and (iv) the service may include automated functionality that performs analysis to develop recommendations based on Your preferences and utilization of the service or software. - f. Location data. The Services may provide functionality that relies upon location information using GPS or similar satellite services or crowd-sourced Wi-Fi/WILAN access points and cell tower locations (where available). Please review the options or settings menu of the applicable device or application software to determine how You may be able to turn off or adjust location features. If You enable location functionality for the Services, and use BBM Channels, Your device's current or saved location will be sampled periodically (as frequently as every fifteen minutes, including in some cases even if the BBM software is not open on Your device) and stored on Your device, using GPS (where available), wireless tower, and Wi-Fi/WLAN hotspot information. In some cases, as Your device moves locations, such information will be sent to our servers so that we may associate the information to Your BBM or BlackBerry ID profile in order to customize Your experience, and provide You with more relevant promotional or BBM Channels content, including localized or time-sensitive offers that utilize geofencing functionality based on Your device's current location.
- g. Integration with Third Party Services. Portions of the Services may require or utilize third party services to function. If You choose to integrate or link the Services with third party services (for example, services that facilitate Your use of the Services in association with social networking or other services offered by third parties), You authorize us to use Your credentials and Process Your personal information relating to such third party services in order to facilitate Your access to such third party services for Your personal and/or domestic purposes. The information Processed may include: (i) Your account ID, password(s), authentication tokens, or other credentials for each such third party service or other account(s) You integrate with the Services; (ii) Your account profile information (for example, account ID, display picture, display name, personal message, availability status, country, time zone, unique device identifiers, etc.); (iii) on-device contacts information; (iv) an indication of which third party applications or services You have connected to Your account; and (v) session data resulting from Your use of the third party applications or services You have connected to Your account (for example, high scores You have achieved in a connected third party game or application for display in Your account profile box, instant messaging data resulting from instant messaging chats You have undertaken within a connected third party application or service and which have been facilitated by the Services' instant messaging functionality, etc.). You also authorize us to obtain personal information from and disclose personal information to the applicable third party service providers (including Service Providers) for activation, billing, provision, service, maintenance, and deactivation purposes. Such third party services that are accessed are not under our control. You should review the settings options or help menu of Your device software or the third party service or software to learn more about, and where applicable, adjust permissions granted and available controls on such third party services and third party software.
- h. Profile Management. We may use Your user account information (which may include Your BlackBerry ID) and information about products and services that are accessible with Your user account to better understand, analyze and predict Your preferences and interests, and may combine it with other information to customize Your experience, suggest other products and services, and provide You with more relevant promotional content based on Your profile.
- i. Advertising. When we display ads and other promotional or sponsored content within the Service, our goal is to provide content that is of interest to You. To do so, we may provide advertisers and third party ad serving providers (including ad networks and exchanges) with information, such as general demographic information, real-time location (e.g. GPS location, if you have opted to share Your GPS location with us) and IP addresses (e.g. for use in detecting click-fraud and identifying Your general location – e.g. city or country). This information is used to help provide You with more relevant content and to know how ad campaigns have performed (for example, how many people clicked on or viewed an ad, or installed an app after viewing an ad). We do not share information that personally identifies You (such as Your name or contact information) with advertisers or third party ad serving providers unless You give us permission to do so. Some platforms, such as iOS and Android, use specific advertising IDs that can be used by us, advertisers and third party ad serving providers to provide You with interest-based advertising both within BBM and across other apps and services You may use. If You do not want such advertising IDs to be used for interest-based advertising, You should review the applicable platform settings that are available to adjust interest-based advertising settings. Electing not to receive interest-based advertising does not mean that You will not receive ads and other promotional or sponsored content. It means that the content You receive will not necessarily be tailored to Your known or inferred interests.

- j. Cookies and Similar Technologies. The BBM Providers may use "cookies" (small pieces of data stored on Your device or computer) or similar tools to enable You to sign in to certain services to protect both You and us, to help make the Services easier to use or tailor Your experience, or for analytics to help us understand how users engage with the Services and to improve their features. Similarly, advertisers and our ad serving providers (including ad networks) may use cookies or similar tools to serve and detect user interaction with ads and to make their ads more effective.

If analysis indicates that a third-party product or service is involved, we may send certain diagnostic or technical information to the third party vendor of the product or service as part of the troubleshooting process. You acknowledge and agree that calls with us and our service providers may be recorded for training, quality assurance, customer service and reference purposes.
- l. Storing of Messages. The contents of messages that have been delivered by the Services are not maintained or archived by us in the normal course of business. BBM messages are sent via data services to servers operated by or on behalf of us, and routed to the recipient(s), if the recipient(s) are online. Once a message has been delivered, it no longer resides on our servers. If the recipient(s) are not online, the undelivered message is held in servers operated by or on behalf of us until it can be delivered for up to thirty (30) days, after which the undelivered message will be deleted from our servers. The contents of any delivered messages reside directly on the sender's and recipient's devices unless deleted by those users, or by auto-delete features of the software used by such users. Notwithstanding the above, we may retain transactional details associated with the messages and devices (for example, date and time stamp information associated with successfully delivered messages and the devices involved in the messages), as well as any other information that we are legally compelled to collect.

Schedule 1

BBM Channels Additional Terms

BBM Channels is a social networking feature within BBM that extends Your network beyond Your family and friendship circle and enables You to connect with people, communities, and brands that interest You.

The BBM Terms of Service, as supplemented and amended by these BBM Channels Additional Terms applies to Your use of BBM Channels, and is referred to in this Schedule as the "BBM Channels Terms". In the event of a conflict between the BBM Terms of Service and these BBM Channels Additional Terms, the BBM Channels Additional Terms will prevail to the extent of such conflict.

Any capitalized terms in BBM Channels Additional Terms that are not defined below have the meaning set out in the BBM Terms of Service.

1. CREATING A BBM CHANNEL.

- a. By Authorized Representatives. Subject to the BBM Channels Terms, You may use BBM Channels to create and administer a unique BBM Channel ("Channel") that features a brand, organization, event or individual for whom You are an authorized representative. BY CREATING A BBM CHANNEL, YOU REPRESENT AND WARRANT TO US THAT YOU HAVE THE AUTHORITY TO CREATE AND ADMINISTER THE CHANNEL ON BEHALF OF SUCH BRAND, ORGANIZATION, EVENT, OR INDIVIDUAL.
- b. By Supporters. You may also create a Channel to express support for, or interest in, a brand, organization, event, or individual, provided You do so only in a manner that: (i) does not suggest that Your Channel is a Channel created by such brand, organization, event, or individual; (ii) does not suggest Your Channel is endorsed by or authorized by such brand, organization, event or individual if Your Channel does not have such endorsement or authorization; (iii) is not intended to otherwise mislead, confuse or deceive others; and (iv) does not otherwise infringe upon or violate any rights of such brand, organization, event or individual, including trademark, copyright, or publicity.
- c. No Misleading or Disruptive Use. Your name and contact information, the name of Your Channel, and any other profile information or description You provide when registering for a Channel, or otherwise include with Your Channel, must be true, must not be misleading, and must accurately reflect its subject matter. The name of Your Channel must be distinctive and may not be generic (e.g. food, cars). You may not create or use Channels for disruptive or abusive purposes. Without limiting the foregoing, You may not create one or more Channels for the purpose of preventing others from using such Channels, selling Channels or Channel names, or otherwise engaging in Channel 'squatting'.

- d. Our Right to Remove or Suspend Channels. We reserve the right to remove or suspend Channels that violate the BBM Channels Terms or any policies that we publish regarding the use of the Services, or any Channels that are inactive. We also reserve the right to transfer unauthorized Channels, Channel names, Channel IDs, and/or administrative capabilities to the brand, organization, event or individual, or their authorized representative that we reasonably consider is rightfully entitled to the Channel name or to create or administer the Channel for such brand, organization, event, or individual.
- e. Posting of Content. Once Your registration for a Channel has been accepted, You may post and display Content that is relevant to the brand, organization, event or individual featured in the Channel. Posting and displaying Content in a Channel does not transfer any ownership of the Content to us, but in doing so You grant us and our affiliates a license to such Content as set forth in the BBM Terms of Service. You also grant us and our affiliates a non-exclusive, royalty-free, worldwide, sublicensable license, for so long as the applicable Channel exists, to reproduce and publicly perform and display Your Content, including without limitation Channel name, screenshots, logos, icons and trademarks ("Marks") in all media whether now known or later developed, in connection with the promotion of BBM Channels, subject to Your prior consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. We acknowledge and agree that we have no right, title or interest in or to Your Marks (except the right to use the same in accordance with terms and conditions of the BBM Channels Terms), and further agree that any right, title or interest You have in such Marks shall remain with You. Without limiting the foregoing, in connection with the use of Your Marks to promote BBM Channels we will not: (i) modify the Marks or any of them, except as expressly approved by You in advance and in accordance with the process set forth above; (ii) combine the Marks, or any of them, with any other marks or create any composite marks; or (iii) do anything that would compromise Your rights in and to the Marks.
- f. Discoverability of Channels. You acknowledge and agree that Your Channel will be discoverable by any user of BBM Channels (unless You elect to make Your Channel a private Channel during Channel setup), and that the content of Your Channel will be public and viewable by everyone who subscribes to Your Channel ("Subscribers"), or who can otherwise view Your Channel and its contents.
- g. You are Responsible for Your Channel(s). While we provide You with the ability to create a Channel, You are solely responsible for the administration and use of Your Channel, including Your Content and interactions with Subscribers.
- h. Making Offers to Subscribers. If You procure or make offers or solicitations ("Offer") available to Subscribers through Your Channel, including by way of a link or URL to a separate web site that contains the Offer details, without limiting anything in the BBM Channels Terms, the following applies:
